POSTERS
The following posters are confirmed as of 2 September 2014. Each will be displayed and presented during the morning and afternoon breaks as well as at lunchtime on one day, as listed below.

Wednesday 1 October
Posters focus on cutting-edge research.

Christabell Abewe, Economist/Researcher, HealthNet Consult, Uganda

Gilbert Abiiro, Research Assistant/PhD student, Institute of Public Health, Germany
Gaps in universal health coverage in Malawi: The perspective of rural communities

Ayat Abuagla, Focal Person of Research and Publications, National Human Resources for Health Observatory, Sudan
Magnitude, trends and implications of out-migration among health professionals in Sudan

Alayne Adams, Senior Social Scientist, International Centre for Diarrhoeal Disease Research, Bangladesh (ICDDR, B), Bangladesh
Inequities in dietary intake of the urban poor in Bangladesh

Esther Adebayo, Researcher, Nigeria
Determinants of community-based health insurance coverage in low and middle-income countries: A systematic review

Sam Adjei, Chief Executive, Centre for Health and Social Services, Ghana
Optimizing the performance of health financing systems through a mix of provider payment mechanisms: A case study of Ghana’s national health insurance scheme

Sayem Ahmed, Research Investigator, International Centre for Diarrhoeal Disease Research, Bangladesh (ICDDR, B), Bangladesh
Socio-economic inequity in maternal, neonatal and child health care utilization in Bangladesh

Zoidze Akaki, Government Liaison Person, Government of Georgia, Georgia
Healthcare utilization and expenditure for chronic and acute conditions in Georgia: Does insurance benefit reflect the population’s health needs?

Katharine Allen, Student, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, USA
How can health systems address inequalities across populations? A case-study from the United Arab Emirates

Andrew Alyao Ocero, PhD Student, Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, United Kingdom
Equity in maternal health care services in post-conflict Northern and non-conflict East-Central Uganda: A comparative mixed methods multi-case study

Woldekidan Amde, Researcher, School of Public Health, University of the Western Cape, South Africa
Strengthening health systems through developing capacity for HRH leadership and governance: Experience of developing an African platform for teaching in health workforce development

Frank Anderson, Associate Professor, University of Michigan, USA
Expanding human capacity in obstetrics and gynaecology in sub-Saharan Africa: Building academic partnerships to reduce maternal mortality

Peter Annear, Academic, Nossal Institute for Global Health, Australia
Coverage and household benefit of Cambodia’s innovative health equity funds for the poor: A quantitative analysis of beneficiary membership data
Edson Araujo, Economist, World Bank Group, Washington DC
Regulating dual practice in the Palestinian territories

Garry Aslanyan, Manager of Partnerships and Governance, TDR, World Health Organization, Geneva
Tackling the tensions in evaluating capacity strengthening for health research systems in low- and middle-income countries

Julie Balen, Lecturer, University of Sheffield, United Kingdom
Health-worker motivation in low- and middle-income country settings: A systematic review of the literature

Aditi Bana, Senior Programme Officer, Public Health Foundation of India, India
Assessing national organizational capacity for health policy and systems research in India: Results of a survey

Kristine Baroe, Associate Professor, University of Bergen, Norway
Regulating for equity? A methodological approach for trans-disciplinary assessment of tensions and interplay between legal, political, administrative and professional priority-setting tools in healthcare

Robert Basaza, Medical Doctor, Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda
Players and processes behind the national health insurance scheme: A case-study of Uganda

Sebastian Bauhoff, PBI Technical Lead, University Research Co., USA
What’s in the black box of pay for performance programs? Health facility inputs and institutional deliveries in the Rwandan national program

Sofi Bergkvist, Executive Director, ACCESS Health International, USA
Policy implications of a government-sponsored health insurance scheme for tertiary care: A study from Andhra Pradesh, India

Nulda Beyers, Director, Desmond Tutu TB Centre, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
The operational research assistance project ‘A novel capacity development Initiative in South Africa’

Afsan Bhadelia, Research Associate, Harvard Global Equity Initiative, USA
Closing the pain divide: A justice perspective

Pallav Bhatt, Senior Research Associate, Public Health Foundation of India, India
Issues and challenges in developing a people-centric essential health package in federal states

Nana Yaa Boadu, Research Awardee, International Development Research Centre, Canada
Unwilling or unable? Understanding healthcare providers’ perspectives on guideline compliance for malaria testing in Ghana

Diana Bowser, Lecturer/Research Scientist, Heller School for Social Policy and Management, USA
The impact of innovative health financing mechanisms on patient-centred care and health outcomes

Lorie Broomhall, Senior Monitoring, Evaluation and Research Technical Advisor, IntraHealth International, USA
Consider the source: Improving the work climate to increase Kenyan health workers’ retention and productivity

Collins Chansa, Health Systems Specialist, World Bank Group, Lusaka
Impact of funding modalities on achieving universal health coverage in Zambia: A focus on maternal child health interventions
Y-Ling Chi, DPhil Student, University of Oxford, United Kingdom
Beyond direct health expenditure: Estimating the economic consequences of negative health shocks on rural households in China

Benjamin Chibuye, Program Manager, Demand-Driven Evaluations for Decisions (Zambia), Clinton Health Access Initiative, Zambia
Demand-driven evaluations for decisions (3DE): A collaborative research model to inform national health policy decisions and improve health outcomes in Zambia and Uganda

Yotamu Chirwa, Researcher, Biomedical Research and Training Institute, Zimbabwe
Health-worker incentives in post-crisis Zimbabwe

Dereck Chitama, Assistant Lecturer, Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Science, Tanzania
Understanding stakeholders’ preference in criteria for prioritizing reproductive health interventions in district council’s health planning in Tanzania: Evidence from discrete choice experiment

Hector Colindres, Senior Technical Advisor, Management Sciences for Health, USA
Achieving robust referral systems for reproductive health services in Honduras: Opportunities for improvement

Teresa Collins, Health Specialist, Mott MacDonald/HLSP, United Kingdom
Achieving equity in skilled birth attendance in Malawi

Christopher Colvin, Head of Division, Social and Behavioural Sciences, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Global to local policy transfer in the introduction of new molecular diagnostics for MDR-TB in South Africa

Marion Cros, PhD Candidate, Brandeis University, USA
Efficiency of health services at primary and secondary health care level in four departments in Haiti

Lucy Cunnama, Junior Research Fellow, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Human resource capacity, process factors and workflow in the laboratory following the implementation of a new TB diagnostic technology in South Africa

Elina Dale, Postdoctoral Fellow, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, USA
Insights from Afghanistan: Effects of performance-based payments on health worker motivation and quality of care

Fahdi Dkhimi, Research Assistant, Institute of Tropical Medicine, Belgium
Effectiveness of plan sesame in achieving equity in health care access for elders in Senegal: A social exclusion perspective

Vinh Nguyen Duc, Vice-Director, Maternal and Child Health Department, Ministry of Health, Viet Nam
Maternal and Child Health Handbook as the tool for universal MCH coverage in Viet Nam

Moriah Ellen, Associate Professor, Jerusalem College of Technology, Israel
What supports do health system organizations have in place to facilitate evidence-informed decision-making? A qualitative study

Khalifa Elmusharaf, Population & International Health Coordinator, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
Participatory health system research (PHSR): A novel strategy of multilevel capacity development for people-centred health systems research in South Sudan

Min Fang, PhD Candidate, Sun Yat-Sen University, China
Public health expenditure and infant mortality: Panel threshold regression analysis of 189 countries
Alice Joan Ferrer, Professor, University of the Philippines Visayas, Philippines
Validating the extent of universal coverage in national health insurance program in Leyte Province, Philippines

Nicole Fick, Research Officer, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Using photo-voice as a participatory method to explore community perceptions of health

John Vincent Fieno, Technical Advisor, USAID, South Africa
Costing the expansion of nursing production in Southern Africa to meet WHO health worker density targets

Lisa Forman, Assistant Professor, University of Toronto, Canada
From the local to the global and back again: What can the right to health offer to the post-2015 health development agenda and related domestic health policies?

Nicola Foster, Researcher, Health Economics Unit, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Seeking care for TB symptoms in South Africa: A longitudinal patient cost study

Peipei Fu, China
Assessment of rural health purchasing arrangements in China

Gavin George, Senior Researcher, HEARD, South Africa
Migration of South African health workers: The extent to which financial considerations influence internal flows and external movements

Charlyn Goliath, Occupational Therapist, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
To lead or not to lead. Down with training, up with coaching!!

Catherine Goodman, Senior Lecturer in Health Economics and Policy, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, United Kingdom
Funding Kenyan health centres: Experiences of implementing direct facility financing and local budget management

Radhika Gore, PhD candidate, Columbia University Mailman School of Public Health, USA
Fulfilling public mandates in evolving urban health care markets: A qualitative study of municipal health care provision in Pune, India

Jay Gribble, Deputy Director, Futures Group, USA
Achieving a people-centred health system through human rights: A case-study on rights-based approaches to family planning in India and Kenya

Jessica Gross, Research Communications Consultant, Emory University Kenya Health Workforce Project, Kenya
Informing the scale-up of Kenya’s nursing workforce: A mixed-methods study of factors affecting preservice training capacity and production

Ramon Lorenzo Luis Guinto, Consultant, International Organization for Migration, Philippines
Universal health coverage in 'One ASEAN': Are migrants included?

Kara Hanson, Professor of Health System Economics, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine, United Kingdom
Equity in geographic resource allocation in Mozambique: An extension of benefit incidence analysis methodology
Piya Hanvoravongchai, Lecturer, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand
Improving the governance of health research in developing country: A collaborative and integrative approach for priority-setting of national health service research in Thailand

Laurel, Hatt, Senior Health Economist, Abt Associates, USA
Increasing access and financial protection: Evaluation of an innovative micro insurance partnership in Lagos, Nigeria

Bethany Hedt-Gauthier, Assistant Professor, Harvard Medical School, USA
Knowing and doing: Developing capacity at multiple levels to increase consumption and production of research in rural Rwanda

Anil Hittalamani, Research Officer, Institute of Public Health, India
How people centred is India’s National Health Insurance Scheme (RSBY): Lessons from a study on social exclusion in Karnataka, India

David Hotchkiss, Professor, Tulane University, USA
Job satisfaction and motivation among public health workers: Longitudinal evidence from Ethiopia

Kumaravel Ilangovan, Student, Asian Institute of Public Health, India
An attempt to address poverty through national tuberculosis control programme in India

Nishant Jain, Deputy Programme Director, GIZ, India
Evaluating the impact of national health insurance programme ‘Rashtriya Swasthya Bima Yojana’ in India

Wanda Jaskiewicz, Senior Team Leader, IntraHealth International, USA
Study of attrition, availability and retention of midwife service scheme officers in Nigeria between 2009 and 2012

Jonathan Jay, Senior Writer, Management Sciences for Health, USA
Civil society coalitions for universal health coverage: Challenges and solutions

Eliana Jimenez Soto, Senior Research Fellow / Principal Investigator IC Project, School of Population Health, University of Queensland, Australia
Dual practice by doctors working in South and East Asia: Origins, scope, impact and the options for regulation

Areeya Jirathananuwat, Student, Faculty of Medicine, Chulalongkorn University, Thailand
Area health research fellowship (AHRF): An innovative national programme to strengthen local health systems research in developing country

Taufique Joarder, Doctoral Candidate, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, USA
Understanding responsiveness of human resource for health: A review of literature

Mahesh Kadammanavar, Research Officer, Institute of Public Health, India
My family is covered, not me... Lessons learnt from the National Health Insurance Scheme (RSBY) in Karnataka

Rahul Sankrutyayan Reddy Kadarpeta, Consultant Healthcare Financing, National Health Systems Resource Centre, India
The impact of insurance coverage for hospitalized care on out-of-pocket expenditures in Ri Bhoi district of Meghalaya, India

Kadidiatou Kadio, PhD Candidate, University of Montreal, Canada
Social protection in health in Burkina Faso: Analysis of a solidarity programme to join the poorest to a health insurance
Anuska Kalita, Research and Strategy Consultant, India
Building local human resource capacities for a more responsive public health research system in India

Minah Kang, Professor, Ewha Womans University, Republic of Korea
Changing patterns of terminology related to universal health coverage

Hyacinthe Kankeu Tchewonpi, PhD Student, Aix-Marseille School of Economics, France
Socioeconomic inequalities vis-à-vis informal payments for health care in 18 countries in sub-Saharan Africa: Does gender matter?

Shereen Khan, Gender Specialist, Human Resources for Health Project in Bangladesh, Cowater International, Bangladesh
A tool to audit gender equality perspectives of human resource policy documents for public sector nurse-midwives in Bangladesh

Afroza Khanom, Senior Research Officer, International Centre for Diarrhoeal Disease Research, Bangladesh (ICDDR, B), Bangladesh
Understanding ‘privacy’ in emergency obstetric and newborn care (EmONC) facilities from patients’ perspective: A qualitative investigation

Keovathanak Khim, Researcher, University of Health Sciences, Cambodia
Can internal contracting deliver a system-wide change? A case-study of a public health care reform in Cambodia

Sujin Kim, Postdoctoral Fellow, Harvard School of Public Health, USA
The impact of the policy to reduce out-of-pocket payment on cancer screening in South Korea

Phatta Kirdruang, Lecturer, Thammasat University, Thailand
Cross-subsidization of health care financing at the hospital level: Case studies of selected public hospitals in Thailand

Doris Kirigia, Health Economist, KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Kenya
Increasing the fiscal space for health: The experience of Kenya, South Africa and Lagos State (Nigeria)

Suzanne N Kiwanuka, Senior Lecturer, Makerere University School of Public Health, Uganda
Why do we stay? Health workers’ motivation experiences from rural communities in three districts in Uganda

Maarten Kok, Researcher, VU University Amsterdam, Netherlands
Quality assurance in HSR: Providing reflexive guidance for enhancing the robustness of health system interventions

Joseph Kundy, Quality Improvement Advisor, University Research Co., Tanzania

Faozi Kurniawan, Researcher, Center for Health Policy & Management, Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia
Bottom-up planning and budgeting to improve primary health care service in decentralized Indonesia: The inclusion of community participations and financing process bottlenecks

Leizel Lagrada, OIC Vice-President, Quality Assurance Group, Philippine Health Insurance Corporation, Philippines
Leveraging social health insurance to ensure access of poorest families to primary care services in the Philippines
Laurence Lannes, Principal Health Economist, African Development Bank, Tunis
Can performance-based financing help reaching the poor with maternal and child health services? The experience of rural Rwanda

Heather Lanthorn, Doctoral Candidate, Harvard School of Public Health, USA
Licensed chemical sellers and antimalarial prices in Northern Ghana under the affordable medicines facility - malaria: A mixed methods analysis

Jeffrey Lazarus, Secretariat Director, Health Systems Global, Denmark
Government and civil society response to viral hepatitis

Tae-Jin Lee, Seoul National University, Republic of Korea
Differential ceiling on co-payment: Does it help to reduce catastrophic payment in South Korea?

Uta Lehmann, Professor, University of the Western Cape, South Africa
Researching people-centred health systems: The reward and challenge of co-production for HPSR

Travis Lim, Health Systems Scientist, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, USA
Does ART task-sharing free up time for healthcare workers to provide more non-HIV services? Evidence from the 2010 Kenya Service Provision Assessment

Suchitra Lisam, Senior Consultant, National Health Systems Resource Center, India
Incentives for health workers in remote and conflict-affected areas: Outcomes and challenges. A case study from Chhattisgarh, India

Qian Long, Postdoctoral Fellow, Duke Kunshan University, China
Caesarean section rate in Mozambique in 1995-2011

Vera Lucia Luiza, Pharmacist, Oswaldo Cruz Foundation/National School of Public Health, Brazil
Access to medicines in Brazil: Policies and strategies from 2002 to 2013

Tavares Madede, Medical Doctor, Faculdade de Medicina, Universidade Eduardo Mondlane, Mozambique
Efforts to improve human resource management in Tanzania and Mozambique: Developing competency-based training in internal supportive supervision

Tiara Marthias, Research Fellow, Center for Health Policy & Management, Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia
The need of investing in supply side to increase health service coverage in vulnerable areas: Lessons learned from user-fee exemption implementation in Papua

Gayle Martin, Economist and Program Leader, Service Delivery Indicators Program, World Bank Group, Washington DC
New insights into provider productivity and quality: Results from service delivery surveys in six SSA countries

Eilish McAuliffe, Director, Centre for Global Health, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland
Action learning sets: A novel method to maintain supportive supervision competencies among Tanzanian and Mozambican facility supervisors

Kathleen McDonald, Senior Project Manager, Women and Health Initiative, Harvard School of Public Health, USA
Provider voices: Health system infrastructure and disrespect and abuse during childbirth in Tanzania
Benjamin Mason Meier, Associate Professor, Global Health Policy, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, USA
Social participation to realize the right to health: A comparative case study of rights-based participation in health systems

Shafiu Mohammed, Lecturer/Research Associate, Ahmadu Bello University, Nigeria
Variations in responsiveness of health care services in Nigeria: Insured and uninsured perspectives

Henry Mollel, Health Systems Management, Ifakara Health Institute, Tanzania
Making decentralization happen: Developing agency in local health leaders

Rosemary Morgan, Lecturer, University of Edinburgh, United Kingdom
Motivation and job satisfaction of community health workers in Morogoro region, Tanzania

Vincent Mubangizi, Coordinator, MUST Huraprim, Uganda
The scope and causes of the deficit in human resources for primary health care in Uganda

Ronald Mutasa, Health Specialist, World Bank Group, Washington DC
An alternative purchasing arrangement for priority health needs in a low-income setting: Performance incentives for maternal and child health through results-based financing in Zimbabwe

Arun Bhuleyan Nair, Deputy Director Research, State Health Systems Resource Centre Kerala, India
Challenges and issues of implementing health insurance program in public hospitals: Analysis of comprehensive health insurance scheme (CHIS) in Kerala, India

Venkatesh Narayan, PhD Student, All India Institute of Medical Sciences, India
‘No channels, no autonomy, no support system’: Nursing governance landscape in India

Amar Nawkar, Research Officer, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, India
How well are we protected against out-of-pocket expenditure? User’s perspective on state-funded health insurance scheme in India

Ha Thi Hong Nguyen, Health Economist, World Bank Group, Washington DC
Where is the patient welfare factor in the formula? Impact evaluation of district hospital capitation payment in Viet Nam

Shirin Nosratnejad, Assistant Professor, Department of Health Services Management, Tabriz University of Medical Science, Islamic Republic of Iran
Factors influencing basic and complementary health insurance purchasing decisions in Iran: Analysis of data from a national survey

Prashanth Nuggehalli Srinivas, Faculty & PhD Fellow, Institute of Public Health Bangalore, India
Unpacking individual, institutional and organizational behaviour in health managers: Results of a realist evaluation of capacity-building in south India

Grace Nuwera, Masters student, University of Queensland, Australia
Ten best resources on universal health coverage

Mary Nyikuri, Researcher, KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Kenya
‘Dividing the pie’: How does the peripheral health facility in charge respond to various accountability demands?
Jacinta Nzinga, Research Officer, KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Kenya
Leadership as identity: Clinical hybrid leaders in Kenyan public hospitals and their role in improving service delivery

Kafayat Olabimpe Oboirien, PhD Intern, Centre for Health Policy, University of the Witwatersrand, South Africa
Conceptualizing health teams in decentralized health systems: A case of district-based clinical specialist teams in South Africa

Vincent Okungu, Research Officer, KEMRI-Wellcome Trust Research Programme, Kenya
Are Kenya’s informal-sector economic activities sustainable to finance universal health care? A cross-sectional analysis

Jill Olivier, Lecturer, Health Policy & Systems Division, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Complex systems interventions with faith-based non-profit providers: Case study of a reproductive health policy intervention with Catholic providers in Ghana, Cameroon and Malawi

Emre Ozaltin, Health Economist, World Bank Group, Washington DC
Staring into oblivion: The case of outside referrals in the Palestinian territories

Retna Siwi Padmawati, Lecturer, Department of Public Health, Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia
Health service preference among disadvantaged group in Indonesia: Access, financial burden and perceived quality. A multi-centre study through the Indonesian health policy network

Bjorg Palsdottir, Executive Director, Training for Health Equity Network: THEnet, Belgium
Representation of underserved populations in medical education institutions with a social accountability mandate: Results from a cross-sectional survey in five THEnet schools

Jay Pan, Assistant Professor, Sichuan University, China
Inequity of equalization: Analysis on the benefit equality of the urban residents’ basic medical insurance in China

Kiran Pandey, Fellow, University of Chicago, USA
Financial burden and impoverishment due to cardiovascular medicines in low- and middle-income countries: An analysis with illustration from India

Emily Peca, Research Associate, University Research Co., USA
Using qualitative methods to improve health system responsiveness in the Western Highlands of Guatemala

Sathira Perera, Postgraduate student, University of Adelaide, Australia
The cost of bypassing small hospitals in a ‘free’ health system: A cross-sectional study in Sri Lanka

Jerome Pfaffmann Zambruni, Health System Specialist, UNICEF, Dakar
‘No one should be left behind’: An analysis of political commitments to reducing urban health inequities in Lagos, Nigeria

Allison Portnoy, Research Associate, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, USA
Costs of vaccine programmes across 94 low- and middle-income countries

Adithya Pradyumna, Research and Training Assistant, Society for Community Health Awareness Research and Action (SOCHARA), India
Neglect of health and health systems in the environmental impact assessment policy and process in India
Bridget Pratt, Research Fellow, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, USA
Promoting health equity through health systems research priority-setting processes: A conceptual exploration for justice in health

Piyanuch Prongfa, Manager, National Health Security Office, Thailand
Model development for consumer service centre to moderate complaints in hospitals registered under the universal health coverage scheme in Thailand

Peiyuan Qiu, Assistant Professor, Sichuan University, China
Rural-to-urban migration and its implication for new cooperative medical scheme coverage and utilization in China

Stella Quimbo, Professor/Department Chair, School of Economics, University of the Philippines, Philippines
Effects of interventions to raise voluntary enrolment in a social health insurance scheme: A cluster randomized trial

VR Raman, Principal Fellow, Public Health Foundation of India, India
Keystone: Building the health policy and systems research community in India

Shreelata Rao Seshadri, Professor, Azim Premji University, India
Karnataka’s roadmap to improved health: Cost-effective solutions to address priority diseases, reduce poverty and increase economic growth

Arash Rashidian, Associate Professor, School of Public Health, Tehran University of Medical Sciences, Islamic Republic of Iran
Pharmaceutical policies: Effects of financial incentives for prescribers. A Cochrane systematic review

Ran Ren, Professor, Dalian Medical University, China
Inequality and access of basic public health services for migrants in a city of China

Rodrigo Rodriguez-Fernandez, Public Health Advisor, International SOS, Indonesia
Non-communicable disease risk factors among health care providers in Timika, Papua Province, Indonesia: A neglected health-system bottleneck

Bandeth Ros, Research Fellow, Cambodia Development Resource Institute, Cambodia
Health-seeking behaviour and the impact of health-financing policy on household financial protection in post-conflict Cambodia: A life-history approach

Yogesh Sabde, Professor, R.D. Gardi Medical College, India
Which mothers bypassed nearer facility under the cash transfer program? A network analysis from Madhya Pradesh, India

Eric Sarriot, CEDARS Director, ICF/Center for Design and Research in Sustainable Health and Human Development, USA
Not just theory: Aligning principles of ‘harnessing complexity’ in purposive complex adaptive systems with sustainability design in community health practice

Miho Sato, Assistant Professor, Graduate School of International Health Development, Nagasaki University, Japan
Motivation of health workers at primary-level facilities in four rural districts of mainland Tanzania

Monika Sawhney, Assistant Professor and Director Bachelors Public Health, Marshall University, India
Effect of women’s empowerment and socioeconomic status on choice and use of family planning methods in sub-Saharan Africa
Deepak Saxena, Associate Professor, Indian Institute of Public Health, India
Exploring healthcare provider's perceptions of cleanliness in delivery care using photo-elicitation technique

Roseanne C Schuster, PhD Candidate, Cornell University, USA
Intrinsic and workplace-related factors among facility- and community-based health workers in rural Mozambique to inform a performance-based incentive intervention

Catherine Searele, Director, MatCH Health Systems, South Africa
Strengthening financial management systems and skills to improve district health services in a rural and urban district in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa

Suneeta Sharma, Project Director, Health Policy Project, Futures Group, USA
Equity and effectiveness of fund allocation and spending for the national rural health mission in Uttarakhand, India

Ibrahim Shehata, Director, Deloitte Consulting, USA
Investing in people: Mozambique’s approach to developing a health-financing strategy

Jingrong Shi, Masters candidate, Center for Migrant Health Policy, SunYat-sen University, China
Occupational health services utilization among migrant workers in manufacturing enterprises in Guangdong province, China

Dipendra Shrestha, PhD Candidate, KyungSung University, Nepal
Financing health care in Nepal

Maylene Shung King, Postdoctoral Fellow, Health Economics Unit, University of Cape Town, South Africa
Passion, power and pragmatism. The profound influence of individuals in shaping school health, a priority programme in South Africa

Mohsin Sidat, Assistant Professor, Faculdade de Medicina, Universidade Eduardo Mondlane, Mozambique
Measuring impact of HRM interventions: Some methodological challenges

Paulinus Sikosana, Technical Officer, WHO, Port Moresby
Evaluation of direct health facility funding initiative in Papua New Guinea

Rachel Silverman, Policy Analyst, Center for Global Development, USA
Confronting resistance: A review of material incentives as a strategy to improve TB treatment adherence and prevent the emergence of drug resistance

Anja Smith, PhD student, Economics Department, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
Using the introduction of the government employees medical scheme to assess the impact of the extension of health insurance on provider choice in South Africa

Rieza Soelaeman, PhD student, Department of Global Health Systems and Development, Tulane University, USA
Health insurance coverage inequality in post-Jamkesmas Indonesia

Sarah Ssali, Senior Lecturer, School of Gender Studies, Uganda
Gendered health care coping in northern Uganda: What are the gender and equity considerations in post-conflict health system strengthening?

Tomohiko Sugishita, Senior Advisor, Japan International Cooperation Agency, Japan
Dying for affordable maternal services: Study on social determinants of maternal mortality in western Kenya
Doan Thi Thuy Duong, Lecturer, Hanoi School of Public Health, Viet Nam
Political economy of universal health insurance processes in Viet Nam

Nhan Tran, Manager, Alliance for Health Policy and Systems Research, WHO, Geneva
Implementation research as a collaborative endeavour: A practical guide

Ogenna Uduma, Research Fellow, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland
What are the challenges of managing human resources for health: The districts’ perspective

Marian Theresia Valera, Technical Consultant, University of the Philippines, Philippines
An impact evaluation of the voluntary student health insurance scheme in Viet Nam

Frederique Vallieres, Assistant Professor, Centre for Global Health, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland
Towards a tool for monitoring volunteer community health worker motivation

Hoang Van Minh, Centre for Health System Research, Hanoi Medical University, Viet Nam
Developing a framework for monitoring the social determinants of health equity in relation to universal health coverage in Viet Nam

Paul Peter Vermeiren, Research Assistant, Institute of Tropical Medicine, Belgium
Heard about Sesame? Communication inequality as a determinant of access to social health protection in Senegal

Catherine Vialle-Valentin, Senior Researcher, Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Institute, USA
Evidence on access to medicines for chronic diseases from household surveys in five low- and middle-income countries

Sreytouch Vong, Researcher, Cambodia Development Resource Institute, Cambodia Contracting health services in Cambodia: From external to internal contracting models and its implications

Kien Vu Duy, Researcher, Centre for Health System Research, Hanoi Medical University, Viet Nam
Horizontal inequity in public healthcare service utilization for non-communicable diseases in urban Viet Nam

Ndack Wadji Ly, Conseillère en financement basé sur la performance, Abt Associates, Senegal
Opening the black box: Process evaluation of results-based financing in Senegal

Jianming Wang, Nanjing Medical University, School Of Public Health, China
Economic burden of patients with pulmonary tuberculosis in a highly developed county of China

Xuanxuan Wang, PhD candidate, Nanjing Medical University, China
Linking health states to subjective well-being: An empirical study of 5,854 rural residents in China

Qun Wang, PhD student, University of Heidelberg, Germany
Out-of-pocket expenditure on chronic non-communicable diseases in sub-Saharan Africa: The case of rural Malawi

Xiaohui Wang, Chinese University of Hong Kong, China
Impact evaluation of provider-payment reform under the new rural cooperative medical scheme in Gansu province, China

Charlotte Warren, Senior Associate, Population Council, USA
Are poor women more likely to receive disrespectful and abusive care during facility-based childbirth?

Salome Wawire, Researcher, Private Sector Innovation Programme for Health (PSP4H), Kenya
The poverty penalty in health: Health-seeking behaviour of the working poor and opportunities for private-sector health care
Jin Wen, Associate Professor, West China Hospital, Sichuan University, China
Physicians get ill in China: A cross-sectional study on burnout

Goodluck Willey Lyatuu, Coordinator, Uzazi Bora Project, Management and Development for Health, Tanzania
Predictors of disrespectful and abusive behaviours to pregnant women during facility-based childbirth in Tanzania

Gemma Williams, Research Assistant, London School of Economics & Political Science, United Kingdom
Equitable access to health insurance for vulnerable children: The case of the national health insurance scheme (NHIS) in Ghana

Chizoba Wonodi, Country Lead, Johns Hopkins International Vaccine Access Centre, Nigeria
Validating a scorecard to assess and catalyse progress on PHC reform in Nigeria

Haja Wurie, Research Coordinator and Research Uptake Officer, ReBUILD Research Consortium, Sierra Leone
Increasing access to health services in remote and rural areas through improved retention of health workers: Evidence from Sierra Leone

Yue Xiao, Associate Professor, China National Health Development Research Centre, China
Realist evaluation of pilot rehabilitation programmes in seven cities in China

Qian Yang, Lecturer, Zhejiang University, China
New incentive system of benefit convergence between patients and doctors for public hospital reform

Jinjuan Yang, PhD Candidate, Xi'an Jiaotong University, China
Analysis of hospital charges for 10,875 in-patients with treatments of chemotherapy of malignant tumour in tertiary hospitals under the fee-for-service payment system

Hua You, China
Impact of adjustment of the NCMS reimbursement policies on the maternal health services utilization

Shasha Yuan, Doctor, Institute of Medical Information & Library, China
Income-related inequalities in new cooperative medical scheme: A five-year empirical study of Junan in China

Wei-Hong Zhang, Senior Project Coordinator and Professor, International Centre for Reproductive Health, Ghent University, Belgium
Post-abortion contraception services: Knowledge, attitudes and practices (KAP) among service providers in China

Miaomiao Zhao, Postdoctoral Fellow, School of Public Health, Health Science Centre, Peking University, China
Analysis on the benefit equity of rural hospital delivery subsidy programme in China